

286.3-440 Appointment of examiners -- Oath -- Restrictions on debt and stock ownership -- Contracts for services of agency's examiners.

- (1) The executive director shall appoint a sufficient number of examiners and assistant examiners to examine all institutions coming under the supervision of the office. A salary schedule for examiners and assistant examiners shall be prepared by the executive director and presented to the secretary of the Finance and Administration Cabinet for approval. In the event an advisory state banking board is established by law, the appointment and compensation of examiners and assistant examiners shall be with the advice of such board.
- (2) The executive director, the deputy director, and each examiner shall take the constitutional oath of office.
- (3) Neither the executive director, nor the deputy director, nor any examiner or assistant examiner shall be indebted directly or indirectly either as borrower, indorser, surety, or guarantor, to any bank or trust company under his supervision or subject to his examination, nor shall he be a director, officer or employee in such bank or trust company, nor engage or become interested in the sale of securities as a business or in the negotiation of loans for others.
- (4) No person shall be assigned to examine the affairs of any bank or trust company in a county in which he holds stock in either a state or national bank or trust company.
- (5) The executive director may enter into contracts with any bank supervisory agency that has concurrent jurisdiction over a state bank or the branch of an out-of-state state bank operating in this state to engage the services of the agency's examiners at a reasonable rate of compensation, or to provide the services of the executive director's examiners to the agency at a reasonable rate of compensation. Any contract entered into pursuant to this subsection shall be deemed a sole source contract under the provisions of KRS 45A.095.
